Celebrity Edge

Celebrity Cruises' lead vessel of the Edge class fleet has an 'outward looking' design—revolutionary for ships and entirely planned using 3D virtual reality. A number of Europe's top designers were engaged for the interiors, including Patricia Urquiola and Kelly Hoppen MBE. Brintons worked with Christy Morales, designer at Royal Caribbean Ltd—operator of the $1 billion luxury liner—to provide nearly 36,000 square metres of custom Axminster carpets.

Spanning three decks at the aft of the ship, Eden has carpet by Brintons and more outward-facing glass than any other room at sea. The golden ratio, and the way the mathematical formula informs curves in nature, inspired the space by Patricia Urquiola. www.brintons.net
